

INDEX OF DIA DOCUMENTS,
ACLU v. DoD
DIA DOCUMENTS DENIED IN FULL

ID	Type	To	From	Subject/Title	Date	Exemption(s)	Remarks
V-7	IIR	DIA	FOB Europe	IIR 7 110 7199 03 / Dominant Warrior- IZ, Chemical Storage Site and Torture Techniques (U)	22-Apr- 03	Two exemptions apply to this document: Exemptions 1 and 2. Exemption One: This document is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Sections 1.4 (b), (c), and (d), which pertain to foreign government information, intelligence activities, and foreign relations of the United States. Release of this information would potentially reveal the identity of a human source and may affect U.S. foreign relations with the government that provided the information. Exemption Two: Internal message handling indicators were withheld pursuant to this exemption as well as external routing locations and instructions. This exemption was asserted to protect a unique identifying number assigned to a source. This exemption was also asserted to protect internal government phone numbers, the release of which could result in the interference with activities of collecting, analyzing, and producing actionable intelligence supporting the terrorism war and U.S. force protection.	Upon further review, this document is not responsive. The torture in the document is prior to invading Iraq and it was done by the former Iraqi regime, not coalition forces.
V-35	Routing Slip	DIA	DIA	Interrogation Policy (U)	19-Mar- 04	Two exemptions apply to this document: Exemptions 2 and 3. Exemption Two: This exemption was asserted for internal office symbols. Exemption Three: Title 10, Section 424 was used to withhold the names and contact information of DIA employees. The release of this information would identify specific DIA personnel.	This is an internal routing slip routing the draft policy mentioned in V-37. This policy was never approved or finalized. It does not reflect final DIA policy or U.S. government decision.

INDEX OF DIA DOCUMENTS,
ACLU v. DoD
DIA DOCUMENTS DENIED IN FULL

ID	Type	To	From	Subject/Title	Date	Exemption(s)	Remarks
V-37	Staff Summary Sheet with attachments	DIA and External Agencies	DIA	DIA Policy for Interrogation Operations (U)	31 Oct 03 thru 4May 04	Four exemptions apply to this document: Exemptions 1, 2, 3, and 5. Exemption One: Portions of this document are currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Section 1.4 (c), which pertains to intelligence activities. It discusses information about intelligence collection activities. The document contains information which, if publicly released, would reveal intelligence sources and methods and compromise the intelligence information collection mission effectiveness of the DIA. Exemption Two: Internal agency telephone numbers and routing information were withheld pursuant to this exemption. Exemption Three: Title 10, Section 424 was used to withhold the names and contact information of DIA employees as the release of this information would identify specific DIA personnel. Exemption Five: This document is both pre-decisional and deliberative. The Staff Summary Sheet and its attachments consist of preliminary opinions, evaluations, and recommendations for approving and implementing this policy. The policy is a draft policy which was never finalized or implemented and may not reflect the final government policy. Release of this document is likely to hinder open internal discussions critical to the decision making process.	The policy attached to the Staff Summary Sheet in this document was a draft policy which was never approved or finalized. It does not reflect final DIA policy or U.S. government decision.

INDEX OF DIA DOCUMENTS,
ACLU v. DoD
DIA DOCUMENTS DENIED IN FULL

ID	Type	To	From	Subject/Title	Date	Exemption(s)	Remarks
V-40	Info Memo	Under Secretary of Defense for Intelligence	L.E. Jacoby, Director, DIA	DIA Policy for Interrogation operations (U)	9 Apr 04	Two exemptions apply to this document: Exemptions 1 and 5. Exemption One: This document is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Section 1.4 (c). It discusses information about intelligence collection activities. The document contains information which, if publicly released, would reveal intelligence sources and methods and compromise the intelligence information collection mission effectiveness of the DIA. Exemption Five: This document is both pre-decisional and deliberative. This Info Memo discusses a draft of a DIA policy that was never implemented. The memo discusses the DIA proposed policy, as well as mentioning those of other DoD components. The document contains advice on how the policy should be used. Release of this document is likely to hinder open internal discussions critical to the decision making process.	Draft info memo discusses a draft policy that was never approved or implemented. The memo does not reflect final DIA policy. The revised version of the info memo is embedded in V-37.
V-45	Memorandum	Vice President and Others	Condoleezza Rice, National Security Advisor	Memorandum on the Geneva Conventions	25 Jan 02	One exemption applies to this document: Exemption 5. Exemption Five: This document is both pre-decisional and deliberative. This memorandum contains discussions between the White House and Executive Agencies. Release of this document is likely to hinder open internal discussions critical to the decision making process.	This memorandum contains discussions between the White House and Executive agencies. Denied on behalf of National Security Council.

INDEX OF DIA DOCUMENTS,
ACLU v. DoD
DIA DOCUMENTS DENIED IN FULL

ID	Type	To	From	Subject/Title	Date	Exemption(s)	Remarks
V-61	Memorandum	None	Directorate for Operations, DIA	DIA Policy for interrogation Operations	Undated	Four exemptions apply to this document: Exemptions 1, 2, 3, and 5. Exemption One: Portions of this document are currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Section 1.4 (c). It discusses information about intelligence collection activities. The document contains information which, if publicly released, would reveal intelligence sources and methods and compromise the intelligence information collection mission effectiveness of the DIA. Exemption Two: This exemption was asserted for internal office symbols. Exemption Three: Title 10, Section 424 was used to withhold the names and contact information of DIA employees as the release of this information would identify specific DIA personnel. Exemption Five: This document is both pre-decisional and deliberative. This memorandum is a draft copy of a policy that was never implemented and may not reflect the final government policy. Release of this document is likely to hinder open internal discussions critical to the decision making process.	This memorandum is another draft version of V-37, which was never approved or finalized. It does not reflect final DIA policy or U.S. government decision.
V-63	Memorandum	Assistant Secretary of Defense, Special Operations and Low Intensity Conflict	L.E. Jacoby, Director, DIA	Memorandum S-2300/DR	Undated	Two exemptions apply to this document: Exemptions 1 and 2. Exemption One: The document is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Section 1.4 (c). Disclosure of the withheld portions could reasonably be expected to reveal those sources and methods used as well as curtail the intelligence information collection mission and its effectiveness. The release of this document would reveal the types of information sought for intelligence purposes. Exemption Two: Internal message handling indicators were withheld pursuant to this exemption as well as external routing locations and instructions.	Upon further review, the document is not responsive. It does not deal with abuse or treatment of detainees.

INDEX OF DIA DOCUMENTS,
ACLU v. DoD
DIA DOCUMENTS DENIED IN FULL

ID	Type	To	From	Subject/Title	Date	Exemption(s)	Remarks
V-68	E-Mail	DIA GC	DIA DH	Genesis of Interrogation Policy	25 Jun 04	Three exemptions apply to this document: Exemptions 1, 3, and 5. Exemption One: This document is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Section 1.4 (c). It discusses information about intelligence collection activities. The document contains information which, if publicly released, would reveal intelligence sources and methods and compromise the intelligence information collection mission effectiveness of the DIA. Exemption Three: Title 10, Section 424 was used to withhold the names and contact information of DIA employees as the release of this information would identify specific DIA personnel. Exemption Five: This document is both pre-decisional and deliberative. This document discusses the formation and development of a policy that was later discontinued and never implemented. Release of this document is likely to hinder open internal discussions critical to the decision making process.	This document discusses the termination of developing the draft policy mentioned in V-37, V-61, and FBI-2. This policy was never approved or finalized. It does not reflect final DIA policy or U.S. government decision.
V-77	E-Mail	Chief Financial Executive	Deputy Staff Director for Policy and Oversight, DIA	Classified email	9 Mar 04	Two exemptions apply to this document: Exemptions 1 and 3. Exemption One: This document is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Section 1.4 (c). It discusses information about intelligence collection activities. The document contains information which, if publicly released, would reveal intelligence sources and methods and compromise the intelligence information collection mission effectiveness of the DIA. Exemption Three: Title 10, Section 424 was used to withhold the names and contact information of DIA employees as the release of this information would identify specific DIA personnel.	Upon further review, the document is not responsive. It deals with staffing, not abuse or treatment of detainees.

INDEX OF DIA DOCUMENTS,
ACLU v. DoD
DIA DOCUMENTS DENIED IN FULL

ID	Type	To	From	Subject/Title	Date	Exemption(s)	Remarks
V-81	Memorandum	L.E. Jacoby, Director, DIA	Director of Operations, DIA	Response to Deputy Secretary of Defense Tasker on Interrogation Teams (U)	18 Jun 03	Three exemptions apply to this document: Exemptions 1, 2, and 3. Exemption One: This document is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Section 1.4 (c). It discusses information about intelligence collection activities. The document contains information which, if publicly released, would reveal intelligence sources and methods and compromise the intelligence information collection mission effectiveness of the DIA. Exemption Two: Document contains information that would allow individuals to circumvent DIA practices and procedures used to obtain intelligence information. Exemption Three: Title 10, Section 424 was used to withhold the names and contact information of DIA employees as the release of this information would identify specific DIA personnel.
V-83	Memorandum	Undersecretary of Defense for Intelligence	L.E. Jacob, Director, DIA	Classified title	4 Aug 03	Two exemptions apply to this document: Exemptions 1 and 2. Exemption One: This document is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Section 1.4 (c). It discusses information about intelligence collection activities. The document contains information which, if publicly released, would reveal intelligence sources and methods and compromise the intelligence information collection mission effectiveness of the DIA. Exemption Two: Internal agency telephone numbers and routing information were withheld pursuant to this exemption.	Info memo describing the detention of two individuals.

INDEX OF DIA DOCUMENTS,
ACLU v. DoD
DIA DOCUMENTS DENIED IN FULL

ID	Type	To	From	Subject/Title	Date	Exemption(s)	Remarks
V-85	E-Mail	DIA	DIA	Classified email	2 Jun 04	Three exemptions apply to this document: Exemptions 1, 2, and 3. Exemption One: This document is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Sections 1.4 (c) and (d). It discusses information about intelligence collection activities. The document contains information which, if publicly released, would reveal intelligence sources and methods and compromise the intelligence information collection mission effectiveness of the DIA. This document deals with foreign activities of the United States and could impair foreign relations if released. Exemption Two: Information that would allow individuals to circumvent DIA practices and procedures was withheld under this exemption. Exemption Three: Title 10, Section 424 was used to withhold the names and contact information of DIA employees as the release of this information would identify specific DIA personnel.	Upon further review, the document is not responsive. It doesn't deal with detainees. The document summarizes staffing requirements and the collection environment overseas.
V-86	E-Mail	DIA	DIA	Interviews	10 Jun 04	Two exemptions apply to this document: Exemptions 1 and 3. Exemption One: This document is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Section 1.4 (c). It discusses information about intelligence collection activities. The document contains information which, if publicly released, would reveal intelligence sources and methods and compromise the intelligence information collection mission effectiveness of the DIA. Exemption Three: Title 10, Section 424 was used to withhold the names and contact information of DIA employees as the release of this information would identify specific DIA personnel.	Upon further review, this document is not responsive. It mentions information obtained from interviews, but it does not mention anything about abuse or treatment of detainees.

INDEX OF DIA DOCUMENTS,
ACLU v. DoD
DIA DOCUMENTS DENIED IN FULL

ID	Type	To	From	Subject/Title	Date	Exemption(s)	Remarks
V-91	Paper	DIA	None	Draft of a Concept of Operations – Defense HUMINT Service (DHS) HUMINT Support to CJTF-180 and CTF-11 (U)	20 May 02	Two exemptions apply to this document: Exemptions 1 and 2. Exemption One: This document is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Section 1.4 (c). It discusses information about intelligence collection activities. The document contains information which, if publicly released, would reveal intelligence sources and methods and compromise the intelligence information collection mission effectiveness of the DIA. Exemption Two: Information that would allow individuals to circumvent DIA practices and procedures was withheld under this exemption.	Upon further review, the document is not responsive. It deals with staffing and requirements to support overseas operations, not detainee abuse or treatment.
V-92	Paper	DIA	None	Draft – HUMINT CONOP (U)	5 Jun 02	Two exemptions apply to this document: Exemptions 1 and 2. Exemption One: This document is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Section 1.4 (c). It discusses information about intelligence collection activities. The document contains information which, if publicly released, would reveal intelligence sources and methods and compromise the intelligence information collection mission effectiveness of the DIA. Exemption Two: Information that would allow individuals to circumvent DIA practices and procedures was withheld under this exemption.	Upon further review, the document is not responsive. It deals with staffing and requirements to support overseas operations, not detainee abuse or treatment.

INDEX OF DIA DOCUMENTS,
ACLU v. DoD
DIA DOCUMENTS DENIED IN FULL

ID	Type	To	From	Subject/Title	Date	Exemption(s)	Remarks
V-94	Memorandum for Record	DIA	None	August to December 2003 Afghanistan Deployment	Undated	Three exemptions apply to this document: Exemptions 1, 2, and 3. Exemption One: This document is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Section 1.4 (c). It discusses information about intelligence collection activities. The document contains information which, if publicly released, would reveal intelligence sources and methods and compromise the intelligence information collection mission effectiveness of the DIA. Exemption Two: Internal agency markings were withheld pursuant to this exemption. Exemption Three: Title 10, Section 424 was used to withhold the names and contact information of DIA employees as the release of this information would identify specific DIA personnel.	Upon further review, the document is not responsive. An individual returning from overseas deployment describes how to improve the mission mainly through staffing and training. The document does not mention detainee abuse or treatment.
V-95	Paper	DIA	None	Operation Overview of Afghanistan	Undated	One exemption applies to this document: Exemption 1 Exemption One: This document is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Section 1.4 (c). It discusses information about intelligence collection activities. The document contains information which, if publicly released, would reveal intelligence sources and methods and compromise the intelligence information collection mission effectiveness of the DIA.	Upon further review, the document is not responsive. It is an overview of overseas operations, and does not deal with detainee abuse or treatment.
V-100	Fact Sheet	DIA	DIA	Polygraphers as Debriefers (U)	11 Sep 03	Two exemptions apply to this document: Exemptions 1 and 3. Exemption One: This document is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Section 1.4 (c). It discusses information about intelligence collection activities. The document contains information which, if publicly released, would reveal intelligence sources and methods and compromise the intelligence information collection mission effectiveness of the DIA. Exemption Three: Title 10, Section 424 was used to withhold the names and contact information of DIA employees as the release of this information would identify specific DIA personnel.	Upon further review, the document is not responsive. It just debates using polygraphers as debriefers and does not deal with detainee abuse or treatment.

INDEX OF DIA DOCUMENTS,
ACLU v. DoD
DIA DOCUMENTS DENIED IN FULL

ID	Type	To	From	Subject/Title	Date	Exemption(s)	Remarks
V-103	E-Mail	DIA	DIA	JIDC	19 Jul 04	Two exemptions apply to this document: Exemptions 1 and 3. Exemption One: This document is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Section 1.4 (c). It discusses information about intelligence collection activities. The document contains information which, if publicly released, would reveal intelligence sources and methods and compromise the intelligence information collection mission effectiveness of the DIA. Exemption Three: Title 10, Section 424 was used to withhold the names and contact information of DIA employees as the release of this information would identify specific DIA personnel.	Upon further review, the document is not responsive. It discusses staffing and organizational issues. It does not deal with detainee abuse or treatment.
V-107	Correspondence	DIA	Foreign government	DIA request for training assistance in intelligence collection	21 Nov 03	Two exemptions apply to this document: Exemptions 1 and 3. Exemption One: The document is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Sections 1.4 (b), (c), and (d). The information was obtained through classified sources and from a foreign government entity. Disclosure of the withheld portions could reasonably be expected to reveal those sources and methods used as well as curtail the intelligence information collection mission and its effectiveness. The release of this document would reveal the types of information sought for intelligence purposes. Exemption Three: Title 10, Section 424 was used to withhold the names and contact information of DIA employees as the release of this information would identify specific DIA personnel.	Foreign government document.

INDEX OF DIA DOCUMENTS,
ACLU v. DoD
DIA DOCUMENTS DENIED IN FULL

ID	Type	To	From	Subject/Title	Date	Exemption(s)	Remarks
V-110	Correspondence	DIA	DIA	Untitled	Undated	Two exemptions apply to this document: Exemptions 1 and 3. Exemption One: This document is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Section 1.4 (c). It discusses information about intelligence collection activities. The document contains information which, if publicly released, would reveal intelligence sources and methods and compromise the intelligence information collection mission effectiveness of the DIA. Exemption Three: Title 10, Section 424 was used to withhold the names and contact information of DIA employees as the release of this information would identify specific DIA personnel.	Correspondence explains concerns about gaining the detainee's trust and obtaining cooperation from the detainee.
V-111	Memorandum	None	DIA	Approach Plan	13 Jan 03	Two exemptions apply to this document: Exemptions 1 and 3. Exemption One: This document is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Section 1.4 (c). It discusses information about intelligence collection activities. The document contains information which, if publicly released, would reveal intelligence sources and methods and compromise the intelligence information collection mission effectiveness of the DIA. Exemption Three: Title 10, Section 424 was used to withhold the names and contact information of DIA employees as the release of this information would identify specific DIA personnel.	Approach plan to get detainee to provide information. This includes providing privileges for the exchange of information.

INDEX OF DIA DOCUMENTS,
ACLU v. DoD
DIA DOCUMENTS DENIED IN FULL

ID	Type	To	From	Subject/Title	Date	Exemption(s)	Remarks
V-112	Agenda	None	DIA	In-Progress Review	19 Mar 03	Two exemptions apply to this document: Exemptions 1 and 3. Exemption One: This document is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Section 1.4 (c). It discusses information about intelligence collection activities. The document contains information which, if publicly released, would reveal intelligence sources and methods and compromise the intelligence information collection mission effectiveness of the DIA. Exemption Three: Title 10, Section 424 was used to withhold the names and contact information of DIA employees as the release of this information would identify specific DIA personnel.	Agenda of a meeting to devise a plan for obtaining cooperation from a detainee.
V-170	Memo	None	DIA	After Action Review (AAR) 26-28 August 03 trip to Guantanamo	2 Sep 03	Three exemptions apply to this document: Exemptions 1, 2, and 3. Exemption One: This document is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Section 1.4 (c). It discusses information about intelligence collection activities. The document contains information which, if publicly released, would reveal intelligence sources and methods and compromise the intelligence information collection mission effectiveness of the DIA. Exemption Two: This exemption was asserted to protect a unique identifying number assigned to the individual being interviewed. Exemption Three: Title 10, Section 424 was used to withhold the names and contact information of DIA employees as the release of this information would identify specific DIA personnel.	Document discusses the purpose of interviewing a detainee. It does not deal with abuse or mistreatment.

INDEX OF DIA DOCUMENTS,
ACLU v. DoD
DIA DOCUMENTS DENIED IN FULL

ID	Type	To	From	Subject/Title	Date	Exemption(s)	Remarks
V-204	Message	Classified	DIA	Classified title	29 Oct 02	Two exemptions apply to this document: Exemptions 1 and 2. Exemption One: The document is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Section 1.4 (c). It discusses information about intelligence collection activities. The document contains information which, if publicly released, would reveal intelligence sources and methods and compromise the intelligence information collection mission effectiveness of the DIA. Exemption Two: Internal message handling indicators were withheld pursuant to this exemption as well as external routing locations and instructions.	Overview of operational support plan to overseas location. Upon further review, the document is not responsive. It does not deal with detainee abuse or treatment.
V-205	Message	Classified	DIA	Classified title	15 Nov 02	Two exemptions apply to this document: Exemptions 1 and 2. Exemption One: The document is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Section 1.4 (c). It discusses information about intelligence collection activities. The document contains information which, if publicly released, would reveal intelligence sources and methods and compromise the intelligence information collection mission effectiveness of the DIA. Exemption Two: Internal message handling indicators were withheld pursuant to this exemption as well as external routing locations and instructions.	Document contains DIA's views on inappropriate treatment of detainees.

INDEX OF DIA DOCUMENTS,
ACLU v. DoD
DIA DOCUMENTS DENIED IN FULL

ID	Type	To	From	Subject/Title	Date	Exemption(s)	Remarks
V-209	Paper	None	DIA	Untitled	Undated	Three exemptions apply to this document: Exemptions 1, 2, and 3. Exemption One: This document is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Section 1.4 (c). It discusses information about intelligence collection activities. The document contains information which, if publicly released, would reveal intelligence sources and methods and compromise the intelligence information collection mission effectiveness of the DIA. Exemption Two: This exemption was asserted for internal office symbols and to protect the unique identifying number of a source. Exemption Three: Title 10, Section 424 was used to withhold the names and contact information of DIA employees as the release of this information would identify specific DIA personnel.	Summary of arrest and abuse of a detainee.
V-212	Message	DIA	DIA	Classified title	12 Jul 04	Three exemptions apply to this document: Exemptions 1, 2, and 3. Exemption One: This document is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Sections 1.4 (b), (c), and (d). It discusses information about intelligence collection activities. The document contains information which, if publicly released, would reveal intelligence sources and methods and compromise the intelligence information collection mission effectiveness of the DIA. This document contains foreign government information, and if released, may affect U.S. relations with the government that provided the information. Exemption Two: Internal message handling indicators were withheld pursuant to this exemption as well as external routing locations and instructions. Document contains information that would allow individuals to circumvent DIA intelligence collection practices and procedures. Exemption Three: Title 10, Section 424 was used to withhold the names and contact information of DIA employees as the release of this information would identify specific DIA personnel.	Document mentions the questioning of detainees. Upon further review, the document is not responsive because it makes no mention of detainee abuse or treatment.

INDEX OF DIA DOCUMENTS,
ACLU v. DoD
DIA DOCUMENTS DENIED IN FULL

ID	Type	To	From	Subject/Title	Date	Exemption(s)	Remarks
V-234	Memorandum	Director, DIA	DIA	Interrogations at the Abu Ghurayb Prison (U)	2 May 04	Three exemptions apply to this document: Exemptions 1, 2, and 3. Exemption One: Information within this document is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Section 1.4 (c). The classified information is about intelligence collection activities. If publicly released, this information would reveal intelligence sources and methods and compromise the intelligence information collection mission effectiveness of the DIA. Exemption Two: This exemption was asserted to protect the intelligence sharing of this information with other governments. Exemption Three: Title 10, Section 424 was used to withhold the names and contact information of DIA employees as the release of this information would identify specific DIA personnel.	Note: U.S. Central Command is still reviewing the document. Requester will be notified of the final disposition of the document when all reviews are complete.
V-241	E-Mail	DIA	DIA	Brief to SSCI Staff	19 May 04	Three exemptions apply to this document: Exemptions 1, 2, and 3. Exemption One: Information within this document is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Section 1.4 (c). It discusses information about intelligence collection activities. The document contains information which, if publicly released, would reveal intelligence sources and methods and compromise the intelligence information collection mission effectiveness of the DIA. Exemption Two: This exemption was asserted for internal office symbols. Exemption Three: Title 10, Section 424 was used to withhold the names and contact information of DIA employees as the release of this information would identify specific DIA personnel.	E-Mail discussing a brief to Senate Select Committee on Intelligence (SSCI) Staff describing detainee handling issues. Note: U.S. Central Command is still reviewing the document. Requester will be notified of the final disposition of the document when all reviews are complete.

INDEX OF DIA DOCUMENTS,
ACLU v. DoD
DIA DOCUMENTS DENIED IN FULL

ID	Type	To	From	Subject/Title	Date	Exemption(s)	Remarks
V-245	E-Mail	DIA	DIA	Question on Detainee Accesses / Conduits	28 Apr 04	Three exemptions apply to this document: Exemptions 1, 2, and 3. Exemption One: This document is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Section 1.4 (c). It discusses information about intelligence collection activities. The document contains information which, if publicly released, would reveal intelligence sources and methods and compromise the intelligence information collection mission effectiveness of the DIA. Exemption Two: This exemption was asserted for internal office symbols. Exemption Three: Title 10, Section 424 was used to withhold the names and contact information of DIA employees as the release of this information would identify specific DIA personnel.	Document explains who questions detainees
V-267	Report of Conversation	None	DIA IG	Knowledge relating to the Iraqi Prison Situation	24 May 04	Three exemptions apply to this document: Exemptions 1, 2, and 3. Exemption One: This document is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Section 1.4 (c). It discusses information about intelligence collection activities. The document contains information which, if publicly released, would reveal intelligence sources and methods and compromise the intelligence information collection mission effectiveness of the DIA. Exemption Two: This exemption was asserted for internal office symbols. Exemption Three: Title 10, Section 424 was used to withhold the names and contact information of DIA employees as the release of this information would identify specific DIA personnel.

INDEX OF DIA DOCUMENTS,
ACLU v. DoD
DIA DOCUMENTS DENIED IN FULL

ID	Type	To	From	Subject/Title	Date	Exemption(s)	Remarks
FBI-2	Policy Memorandum	DIA and External Agencies	DIA	DIA Policy for Interrogation Operations	Undated	Four exemptions apply to this document: Exemptions 1, 2, 3, and 5. Exemption One: Portions of this document are currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Section 1.4 (c), which pertains to intelligence activities. It discusses information about intelligence collection activities. The document contains information which, if publicly released, would reveal intelligence sources and methods and compromise the intelligence information collection mission effectiveness of the DIA. Exemption Two: Internal agency telephone numbers and routing information were withheld pursuant to this exemption. Exemption Three: Title 10, Section 424 was used to withhold the names and contact information of DIA employees as the release of this information would identify specific DIA personnel. Exemption Five: This document is both pre-decisional and deliberative. The Staff Summary Sheet and its attachments consist of preliminary opinions, evaluations, and recommendations for approving and implementing this policy. Release of this document is likely to hinder open internal discussions critical to the decision making process.	Referral from the Federal Bureau of Investigation. This document is another draft version of V-37, which was never approved and finalized. It does not reflect final DIA policy or U.S. government decision. Note: In this draft, the document is referred to as "Policy Memorandum No. 73", which the plaintiff inquired about in item #17 of Annex A of their correspondence to Sean Lane, Assistant U.S. Attorney.
LL42	Fax Coversheet	DIA	DIA	Padilla	30 Apr 03	Two exemptions apply to this document: Exemptions 2 and 3. Exemption Two: This exemption was asserted for internal office symbols. This exemption was also asserted to protect internal government phone numbers, which if released could interfere with daily operations. Exemption Three: Title 10, Section 424 was used to withhold the names and contact information of DIA employees as the release of this information would identify specific DIA personnel.	Referral from State Department. Upon further review, the document is not responsive. It is a fax coversheet transmitting LL42A, and does not mention detainee abuse or treatment.

INDEX OF DIA DOCUMENTS,
ACLU v. DoD
DIA DOCUMENTS DENIED IN FULL

ID	Type	To	From	Subject/Title	Date	Exemption(s)	Remarks
LL42A	E-Mail	DIA	DIA	Padilla Update	30 Apr 03	Two exemptions apply to this document: Exemptions 1 and 3. Exemption One: This document is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Sections 1.4 (c) and (d). It discusses information about intelligence collection activities. The document contains information which, if publicly released, would reveal intelligence sources and methods and compromise the intelligence information collection mission effectiveness of the DIA. This document describes foreign activities of the United States, and if released could impair U.S. government foreign relations. Exemption Three: Title 10, Section 424 was used to withhold the names and contact information of DIA employees as the release of this information would identify specific DIA personnel.	Referral from State Department. E-Mails discussing best method for obtaining information from a detainee