B162	Reports	N/A	N/A	AR 15-6 Reports		Two exemptions apply to these annexes: Exemptions 1 and 5. Exemption One Information redacted from this section is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Sections 1.4 (a) and (c), which pertain to military operations and intelligence activities of the United States. Redacted portions of these annexes contain information on military operations, units and facilities. These annexes also include information concerning intelligence sources and methods and intelligence assessments. Release of this information would cause serious damage to the national security as disclosure would allow hostile entities to obtain information about military operations and intelligence activities which could be used to counter them. Exemption 5 Recommendations included in the section regarding military operations and intelligence activities are both predecisional and deliberative because they are: (1) preliminary opinions which do not reflect DoD's final views, and are therefore pre-decisional; and (2) proposed changes to regulations. Disclosure of any of this deliberative information is likely to chill full, frank, and open internal discussions.	Annex 119 thru 124 to Formica Report

B163	Reports	N/A	N/A	Summary Interrogation Reports	26-Dec-03	Exemption One Information redacted from these annexes is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Sections 1.4 (a) and (c), which pertain to military operations and intelligence activities of the United States. They contain detailed information concerning the interrogation of specific detainees including descriptions of specific interrogation techniques and assessments of their effectiveness. Release of this detailed information concerning the interrogation of specific detainees would cause serious damage to the national security, specifically intelligence activities and methods, as disclosure would allow hostile entities to discover details regarding the interview process associated with these detainees and the assessment and evaluation of the effectiveness or ineffectiveness of the interview process made by those directly responsible for it. Moreover, disclosure would allow hostile agents to use this information to devise countermeasures to counter interrogation techniques.	Annex 125 thru 154 to Formica Report
