

INDEX OF DOD DOCUMENTS
 ACLU V. DOD
 REDACTED DOCUMENTS: SECTION 11 (CHURCH REPORT: PART 2)

ID	Page Range DoD June	Topic	Exemption(s)	Remarks
R-35	3559 - 3574	Evolution of Approved Techniques	Exemption One Information redacted from this section is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Sections 1.4 (a) and (c), which pertain to military operations and intelligence activities of the United States. Redacted portions of this section contain detailed information concerning specific interrogation techniques and assessments of their effectiveness. Release of this detailed information would cause serious damage to the national security, specifically intelligence activities and methods, as disclosure would allow hostile entities to discover details regarding the interview process and the assessment and evaluation of the effectiveness or ineffectiveness of the interview process. Moreover, disclosure would allow hostile agents to use this information to devise countermeasures to counter interrogation techniques.

INDEX OF DOD DOCUMENTS
 ACLU V. DOD
 REDACTED DOCUMENTS: SECTION 11 (CHURCH REPORT: PART 2)

ID	Page Range DoD June	Topic	Exemption(s)	Remarks
R-36	3575-3576	Interrogation Techniques Employed, Investigative Procedure	None	All information in this section has been released. It is included for the sake of clarity.
R-37	3576 - 3578	Comparison of Interrogation Techniques Approved and Employed	Exemption One Information redacted from this section is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Sections 1.4 (a) and (c), which pertain to military operations and intelligence activities of the United States. Redacted portions of this section contain detailed information concerning specific interrogation techniques. Release of this detailed information would cause serious damage to the national security, specifically intelligence activities and methods, as disclosure would allow hostile entities to discover details regarding the interview process and to use this information to devise countermeasures to counter interrogation techniques.

INDEX OF DOD DOCUMENTS
 ACLU V. DOD
 REDACTED DOCUMENTS: SECTION 11 (CHURCH REPORT: PART 2)

ID	Page Range DoD June	Topic	Exemption(s)	Remarks
R-38	3578 - 3579	Overall Compliance with Approved Techniques	None	All information in this section has been released. It is included for the sake of clarity.
R-39	3579 - 3580	FM 34-52 Techniques	Exemption One Information redacted from this section is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Sections 1.4 (a) and (c), which pertain to military operations and intelligence activities of the United States. Redacted portions of this section contain detailed information concerning specific interrogation techniques. Release of this detailed information would cause serious damage to the national security, specifically intelligence activities and methods, as disclosure would allow hostile entities to discover details regarding the interview process and to use this information to devise countermeasures to counter interrogation techniques.

INDEX OF DOD DOCUMENTS
 ACLU V. DOD
 REDACTED DOCUMENTS: SECTION 11 (CHURCH REPORT: PART 2)

ID	Page Range DoD June	Topic	Exemption(s)	Remarks
R-40	3580 - 3592	Techniques Introduced by the 24 Jan 03 CJTF-180 Memo, 16 Mar 04 CJTF-180 CJ2 Memo, 13 May 04 CJTF-7 Interrogation Policy, Prohibited Techniques	Exemption One Information redacted from this section is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Sections 1.4 (a) and (c), which pertain to military operations and intelligence activities of the United States. Redacted portions of this section contain detailed information concerning interrogation techniques including descriptions of the use of these specific interrogation techniques and assessments of their effectiveness. Release of this detailed information would cause serious damage to the national security, specifically intelligence activities and methods, as disclosure would allow hostile entities to discover details regarding the interview process and the assessment and evaluation of the effectiveness or ineffectiveness of the interview process. Moreover, disclosure would allow hostile agents to use this information to devise countermeasures to counter interrogation techniques.

INDEX OF DOD DOCUMENTS
 ACLU V. DOD
 REDACTED DOCUMENTS: SECTION 11 (CHURCH REPORT: PART 2)

ID	Page Range DoD June	Topic	Exemption(s)	Remarks
R-41	3592 - 3596	Migration of Interrogation Techniques	Exemption One Information redacted from this section is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Sections 1.4 (a) and (c), which pertain to military operations and intelligence activities of the United States. Redacted portions of this section contain detailed information concerning interrogation techniques including assessments of their effectiveness. Release of this detailed information would cause serious damage to the national security, specifically intelligence activities and methods, as disclosure would allow hostile entities to discover details regarding the interview process and the assessment and evaluation of the effectiveness or ineffectiveness of the interview process. Moreover, disclosure would allow hostile agents to use this information to devise countermeasures to counter interrogation techniques.

INDEX OF DOD DOCUMENTS
 ACLU V. DOD
 REDACTED DOCUMENTS: SECTION 11 (CHURCH REPORT: PART 2)

ID	Page Range DoD June	Topic	Exemption(s)	Remarks
R-42	3596 - 3599	Pressure for Intelligence, Detainee Abuse, Interrogation-related Abuse	None	All information in this section has been released. It is included for the sake of clarity.
R-43	3599 - 3600	December 2002 Deaths at the Bagram Collection Point	Exemption One Information redacted from this section is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Sections 1.4 (a) and (c), which pertain to military operations and intelligence activities of the United States. Redacted portions of this section contain information concerning interrogation techniques including assessments of their effectiveness. Release of this information would cause serious damage to the national security. Disclosure would allow hostile entities to discover details regarding the interview process and the assessment and evaluation of its effectiveness, and thus to use this information to counter interrogation techniques.

INDEX OF DOD DOCUMENTS
 ACLU V. DOD
 REDACTED DOCUMENTS: SECTION 11 (CHURCH REPORT: PART 2)

ID	Page Range DoD June	Topic	Exemption(s)	Remarks
R-44	3600 - 3601	The Passaro Case	None	All information in this section has been released. It is included for the sake of clarity.
R-45	3601	Gardez	Exemption 7(a) This section relates to an on-going law enforcement proceeding or open investigation. Disclosure of this information would interfere with the conduct of these proceedings by making public information integral to these investigations prematurely.

INDEX OF DOD DOCUMENTS
 ACLU V. DOD
 REDACTED DOCUMENTS: SECTION 11 (CHURCH REPORT: PART 2)

ID	Page Range DoD June	Topic	Exemption(s)	Remarks
R-46	3601 - 3603	Conclusions: Interrogations Techniques and Abuse	Exemption One Information redacted from this section is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Sections 1.4 (a) and (c), which pertain to military operations and intelligence activities of the United States. Redacted portions of this section describe interrogation techniques and procedures, including assessments of their effectiveness and vulnerability. Release of this information would cause serious damage to the national security as hostile entities could discover information regarding the interview process and the assessment and evaluation of its effectiveness which could be used to counter interrogation techniques.
R-47	3605-3607	Operation Iraqi Freedom- Background,	None	All information in this section has been released. It is included for the sake of clarity.

INDEX OF DOD DOCUMENTS
 ACLU V. DOD
 REDACTED DOCUMENTS: SECTION 11 (CHURCH REPORT: PART 2)

ID	Page Range DoD June	Topic	Exemption(s)	Remarks
R-48	3607 - 3613	Evolution of Command Structures and Detention Facilities, Theater Level Facilities	Exemption One Information redacted from this section is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Sections 1.4 (a) and (g), which pertain to military operations and vulnerabilities. Redacted portions of this section contain information about military operations, command structures and facilities related to detainees. Release of this information would cause serious damage to the national security as disclosure would allow hostile entities to obtain valuable information about military organization, vulnerabilities and capabilities. Hostile agents could then use this information to develop tactics and techniques to impede these military operations.

INDEX OF DOD DOCUMENTS
 ACLU V. DOD
 REDACTED DOCUMENTS: SECTION 11 (CHURCH REPORT: PART 2)

ID	Page Range DoD June	Topic	Exemption(s)	Remarks
R-49	3613 - 3615	The Shift to Stability Operations, The Iraq Survey Group	Exemption One Information redacted from this section is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Sections 1.4 (a) and (g), which pertain to military operations and vulnerabilities. Redacted portions of this section contain information about military operations, organizations, command structures and facilities related to detainees. Release of this information would cause serious damage to the national security as disclosure would allow hostile entities to obtain valuable information about military organization, specific military units, vulnerabilities and capabilities. Hostile agents could then use this information to develop tactics and techniques to impede these military operations.
R-50	3615 - 3617	Toward a Focus on Detainee Operations	All information redacted from this document is withheld to protect identities under exemptions 6 and 7(c).

INDEX OF DOD DOCUMENTS
 ACLU V. DOD
 REDACTED DOCUMENTS: SECTION 11 (CHURCH REPORT: PART 2)

ID	Page Range DoD June	Topic	Exemption(s)	Remarks
R-51	3617 - 3620	Detainee Flow From Point of Capture Through Detention	Two exemptions apply to this section: Exemptions 1 and 5. Exemption One This section is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Sections 1.4 (a) and (c), which pertain to military operations and intelligence activities of the United States. Disclosure would cause serious damage to the national security by revealing intelligence sources and methods and military activities of the United States. Exemption 5: This section contains detailed descriptions of internal deliberations concerning interrogation techniques. Deliberative process: This section contains information that is both predecisional and deliberative because it contains: (1) preliminary opinions, not DoD's final views, and are therefore pre-decisional; and (2) evaluations, proposals, and recommendations as part of the internal deliberations. Public disclosure would be likely to chill full, frank, and open internal discussions. Attorney-client: This section contains detailed descriptions of confidential communications between DoD clients and counsel in the course of giving legal advice.

INDEX OF DOD DOCUMENTS
 ACLU V. DOD
 REDACTED DOCUMENTS: SECTION 11 (CHURCH REPORT: PART 2)

ID	Page Range DoD June	Topic	Exemption(s)	Remarks
R-52	3620 -3622	MI-MP Relationship, Evolution of Approved Techniques, OPORD 1003V and Major Combat Operations	None	All information in this section has been released. It is included for the sake of clarity.
R-53	3622 - 3623	The Iraq Survey Group	Exemption One Information redacted from this section is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Sections 1.4 (a) and (c), which pertain to military operations and intelligence activities of the United States. Redacted portions of this section describe interrogation techniques and procedures, including assessments of their effectiveness and vulnerability, as well as military operations and capabilities. Release of this information would cause serious damage to the national security as hostile entities could discover information regarding intelligence matters and military activities which could be used to counter interrogation techniques and U.S. military operations.

INDEX OF DOD DOCUMENTS
 ACLU V. DOD
 REDACTED DOCUMENTS: SECTION 11 (CHURCH REPORT: PART 2)

ID	Page Range DoD June	Topic	Exemption(s)	Remarks
R-54	3623 - 3626	April - September 2003	Exemption One Information redacted from this section is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Sections 1.4 (a) and (c), which pertain to military operations and intelligence activities of the United States. Redacted portions of this section describe interrogation techniques and procedures, including assessments of their effectiveness and vulnerability, as well as military operations, procedures and capabilities related to detainees. Release of this information would cause serious damage to the national security as hostile entities could discover detailed information regarding intelligence matters and military activities which could be used to counter interrogation techniques and U.S. military operations.

INDEX OF DOD DOCUMENTS
 ACLU V. DOD
 REDACTED DOCUMENTS: SECTION 11 (CHURCH REPORT: PART 2)

ID	Page Range DoD June	Topic	Exemption(s)	Remarks
R-55	3626 - 3635	Development of the September 2003 CTJF-7 Interrogation policy, 12 October 2003 CJTF-7 Interrogation and Counter Resistance Policy, May 13, 2004 CJTF-7 Interrogation and Counter-Resistance Policy	Two exemptions apply to this section: Exemptions 1 and 5. Exemption One This section is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Sections 1.4 (a) and (c), which pertain to military operations and intelligence activities of the United States. It contains descriptions of specific interrogation techniques and procedures regarding interrogations. Disclosure would cause serious damage to the national security by revealing intelligence sources and methods and military activities of the United States. Exemption 5 : This section contains detailed descriptions of internal deliberations concerning interrogation techniques. Deliberative process : This section contains information that is both predecisional and deliberative because it contains: (1) preliminary opinions, not DoD's final views, and are therefore pre-decisional; and (2) evaluations, proposals, and recommendations as part of the internal deliberations. Public disclosure would be likely to chill full, frank, and open internal discussions.

INDEX OF DOD DOCUMENTS
 ACLU V. DOD
 REDACTED DOCUMENTS: SECTION 11 (CHURCH REPORT: PART 2)

ID	Page Range DoD June	Topic	Exemption(s)	Remarks
R-56	3635 - 3639	Interrogation Techniques Employed, Investigative Procedures, Comparison of Interrogation Techniques Approved and Employed	Exemption One Information redacted from this section is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Sections 1.4 (a) and (c), which pertain to military operations and intelligence activities of the United States. Redacted portions of this section describe specific interrogation techniques and procedures, including assessments of their effectiveness and vulnerability. Release of this information would cause serious damage to the national security as hostile entities could discover information regarding specific interrogation techniques and the assessment and evaluation of their effectiveness which could be used to counter interrogation techniques.

INDEX OF DOD DOCUMENTS
 ACLU V. DOD
 REDACTED DOCUMENTS: SECTION 11 (CHURCH REPORT: PART 2)

ID	Page Range DoD June	Topic	Exemption(s)	Remarks
R-57	3639 - 3645	Overall Compliance with Approved Techniques, FM 34-52 Techniques, Techniques Introduced by the September 14, 2003 CJTF-7 Policy Memorandum	Exemption One Information redacted from this section is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Sections 1.4 (a) and (c), which pertain to military operations and intelligence activities of the United States. Redacted portions of this section contain detailed information describing specific interrogation techniques and procedures, including assessments of their effectiveness and vulnerability. Release of this information would cause serious damage to the national security as hostile entities could discover information regarding the interview process and the assessment and evaluation of its effectiveness which could be used to counter interrogation techniques.

INDEX OF DOD DOCUMENTS
 ACLU V. DOD
 REDACTED DOCUMENTS: SECTION 11 (CHURCH REPORT: PART 2)

ID	Page Range DoD June	Topic	Exemption(s)	Remarks
R-58	3645-3653	Continued Use of Some Retracted and Prohibited Techniques; Doctrinal, Additional and Prohibited Techniques	Exemption One Information redacted from this section is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Sections 1.4 (a) and (c), which pertain to military operations and intelligence activities of the United States. Redacted portions of this section contain detailed information describing specific interrogation techniques and procedures, including assessments of their effectiveness and vulnerability. Release of this information would cause serious damage to the national security as hostile entities could discover information regarding the interview process and the assessment and evaluation of its effectiveness which could be used to counter interrogation techniques.

INDEX OF DOD DOCUMENTS
 ACLU V. DOD
 REDACTED DOCUMENTS: SECTION 11 (CHURCH REPORT: PART 2)

ID	Page Range DoD June	Topic	Exemption(s)	Remarks
R-59	3653 - 3654	Migration of Interrogation Techniques, Pressure for Intelligence	Exemption One Information redacted from this section is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Sections 1.4 (a) and (c), which pertain to military operations and intelligence activities of the United States. Redacted portions of this section describe interrogation techniques and procedures, including assessments of their effectiveness and vulnerability. Release of this information would cause serious damage to the national security as hostile entities could discover information regarding the interview process and the assessment and evaluation of its effectiveness which could be used to counter interrogation techniques.
R-60	3656 - 3666	Detainee Abuse: Various subsections	None	All information in this section has been released. It is included for the sake of clarity.

INDEX OF DOD DOCUMENTS
 ACLU V. DOD
 REDACTED DOCUMENTS: SECTION 11 (CHURCH REPORT: PART 2)

ID	Page Range DoD June	Topic	Exemption(s)	Remarks
R-61	3667 - 3669	Conclusions: Interrogation Techniques and Abuse, Missed Opportunities	Exemption One Information redacted from this section is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Sections 1.4 (a) and (c), which pertain to military operations and intelligence activities of the United States. Redacted portions of this section discuss intelligence activities and military operations related to detainees. Release of this information would cause serious damage to the national security as hostile entities could discover information regarding the interview process and the assessment and evaluation of its effectiveness which could be used to counter intelligence activities and military operations.

INDEX OF DOD DOCUMENTS
 ACLU V. DOD
 REDACTED DOCUMENTS: SECTION 11 (CHURCH REPORT: PART 2)

ID	Page Range DoD June	Topic	Exemption(s)	Remarks
R-62	3669-3670	Other Issues: Coalition Forces, The Iraqi National Guard	Exemption One Information in these sections is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Sections 1.4 (a) and (d), which pertain to military operations and foreign relations of the United States. It describes military operations and intelligence activities of the United States and a foreign government. Release of such classified information would cause damage to the national security, as disclosure of information about these operations and activities could impede relations between the United States and foreign governments.
R-63	3671-3680	The Role of Contractors in DoD Interrogation Operations	None	All information in this section has been released. It is included for the sake of clarity.

INDEX OF DOD DOCUMENTS
 ACLU V. DOD
 REDACTED DOCUMENTS: SECTION 11 (CHURCH REPORT: PART 2)

ID	Page Range DoD June	Topic	Exemption(s)	Remarks
R-64	3681 - 3682	DoD Support to Other Government Agencies - Introduction	None	All information in this section has been released. It is included for the sake of clarity.
R-65	3682 - 3685	Methodology, Interagency Coordination Guidance	Exemption One Information redacted from this section is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Sections 1.4 (a) and (c), which pertain to military operations and intelligence activities of the United States. Redacted portions of this section discuss intelligence activities, including intelligence sources and methods, and military operations related to detainees. Release of this information would cause serious damage to the national security as hostile entities could discover information revealing details about intelligence sources and methods which could be used to counter intelligence activities and military operations.

INDEX OF DOD DOCUMENTS
 ACLU V. DOD
 REDACTED DOCUMENTS: SECTION 11 (CHURCH REPORT: PART 2)

ID	Page Range DoD June	Topic	Exemption(s)	Remarks
R-66	3685 - 3692	DoD Support, Transfer and Custody of Detained Personnel, Ghost Detainees	Exemption One Information redacted from this section is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Sections 1.4 (a) and (c), which pertain to military operations and intelligence activities of the United States. Redacted portions of this section discuss intelligence activities, including intelligence sources and methods, and military operations related to detainees. Release of this information would cause serious damage to the national security as hostile entities could discover information revealing details about intelligence sources and methods which could be used to counter intelligence activities and military operations.

INDEX OF DOD DOCUMENTS
 ACLU V. DOD
 REDACTED DOCUMENTS: SECTION 11 (CHURCH REPORT: PART 2)

ID	Page Range DoD June	Topic	Exemption(s)	Remarks
R-67	3692 - 3701	Logistical Support, Intelligence Sharing , Interrogations at DoD Facilities	Exemption One Information redacted from this section is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Sections 1.4 (a) and (c), which pertain to military operations and intelligence activities of the United States. Redacted portions of this section discuss intelligence activities, including intelligence sources and methods, detention facilities and military operations related to detainees. Release of this information would cause serious damage to the national security as hostile entities could discover information revealing details about intelligence sources and methods which could be used to counter intelligence activities and military operations.

INDEX OF DOD DOCUMENTS
 ACLU V. DOD
 REDACTED DOCUMENTS: SECTION 11 (CHURCH REPORT: PART 2)

ID	Page Range DoD June	Topic	Exemption(s)	Remarks
R-68	3701 - 3702	Conclusion	Exemption One Information redacted from this section is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, Sections 1.4 (a) and (c), which pertain to military operations and intelligence activities of the United States. Redacted portions of this section discuss intelligence activities, including intelligence sources and methods, and military operations related to detainees. Release of this information would cause serious damage to the national security as hostile entities could discover information revealing details about intelligence sources and methods which could be used to counter intelligence activities and military operations.

INDEX OF DOD DOCUMENTS
 ACLU V. DOD
 REDACTED DOCUMENTS: SECTION 11 (CHURCH REPORT: PART 2)

ID	Page Range DoD June	Topic	Exemption(s)	Remarks
R-69	3703-3707	Medical Issues Relevant to Interrogation and Detention Operations, Background, Medical Doctrine, Detainee Screening and Medical Treatment, Medical Involvement in Investigation	None	All information in this section has been released. It is included for the sake of clarity.

INDEX OF DOD DOCUMENTS
 ACLU V. DOD
 REDACTED DOCUMENTS: SECTION 11 (CHURCH REPORT: PART 2)

ID	Page Range DoD June	Topic	Exemption(s)	Remarks
R-70	3707-3709	Military Legal Review, General Assembly Resolution, Interrogator Access to Medical Information, Other Sources of Guidance	Exemption 5 This section includes detailed discussion of a legal opinion prepared by a military attorney. Two privileges apply: Deliberative process : Public disclosure of the substance of legal analysis concerning detainee treatment would reveal internal DoD deliberations concerning interrogation policy . This opinion is both predecisional and deliberative because it contains: (1) preliminary opinions which do not reflect DoD's final views, and are therefore pre-decisional; and (2) observations, opinions, advice, with regard to the treatment of detainees. Disclosure of any of this deliberative information is likely to chill full, frank, and open internal discussions. Attorney-client : This is a confidential communication from a military attorney to a client on a matter in which the client required legal advice.

INDEX OF DOD DOCUMENTS
 ACLU V. DOD
 REDACTED DOCUMENTS: SECTION 11 (CHURCH REPORT: PART 2)

ID	Page Range DoD June	Topic	Exemption(s)	Remarks
R-71	3710-3711	Medical Findings, Overview of Detainee Deaths	Portions of this section withheld under this exemption are internal and are used for internal purposes; these sections describe medical procedures and reporting requirements. The release of this internal information in this document regarding medical matters relating to detainees would inhibit thorough and accurate completion of various medical requirements.
R-72	3711 - 3717	Guantanamo Bay	Portions of this section withheld under this exemption are internal and are used for internal purposes; these sections describe medical treatment of detainees as well as medical procedures and reporting requirements. The release of this internal information would allow detainees to learn details of the medical aspects inherent in operation of a detention facility, and allow them to impede the military functions of the detention facility.

INDEX OF DOD DOCUMENTS
 ACLU V. DOD
 REDACTED DOCUMENTS: SECTION 11 (CHURCH REPORT: PART 2)

ID	Page Range DoD June	Topic	Exemption(s)	Remarks
R-73	3717 - 3724	Afghanistan	Portions of this section withheld under this exemption are internal and are used for internal purposes; these sections describe medical treatment of detainees, medical functions related to military operations as well as medical procedures and requirements. The release of this internal information would allow hostile agents to learn details of the medical aspects relating to military operations and the handling of detainees, and allow them to frustrate these military operations and interfere with the proper handling of detainees.

INDEX OF DOD DOCUMENTS
 ACLU V. DOD
 REDACTED DOCUMENTS: SECTION 11 (CHURCH REPORT: PART 2)

ID	Page Range DoD June	Topic	Exemption(s)	Remarks
R-74	3724-3729	Detainee Deaths in Iraq	Portions of this section withheld under this exemption are internal and are used for internal purposes; these sections describe medical treatment of detainees, medical functions related to military operations as well as medical procedures and requirements. The release of this internal information would allow hostile agents to learn details of the medical aspects relating to military operations and the handling of detainees, and allow them to frustrate these military operations and interfere with the proper handling of detainees.
R-75	3729 - 3731	Conclusions	None	All information in this section has been released. It is included for the sake of clarity.