

U.S. Department of Justice

*United States Attorney
Southern District of New York*

*86 Chambers Street, 3rd Floor
New York, New York 10007*

August 17, 2012

VIA FEDERAL EXPRESS

Hina Shamsi
Nathan Wessler
American Civil Liberties Union Foundation
125 Broad Street, 18th Floor
New York, NY 10004

Re: ACLU v. Dep't of Defense, et al., No. 09 Civ. 8071 (BSJ) (FM)

Dear Ms. Shamsi and Mr. Wessler:

Pursuant to Paragraph 2 of the Third Stipulation and Order Regarding Document Processing and Production by the U.S. Department of Defense, Paragraph 3 of the Stipulation and Order Regarding Document Processing and Production by the U.S. Department of State, and Paragraph 3 of the Stipulation and Order Regarding Document Processing and Production by the National Security Division of the U.S. Department of Justice, enclosed please find documents representing the releaseable portions of all outstanding referrals and consultations in this matter, as follows:

- Documents of the Department of Defense ("DoD") that were the subject of consultation with other agencies, which have been Bates-labeled Bagram/OSD Policy 000084-88 and 000091;
- Documents of the Department of State ("State") that were the subject of consultations with other agencies, which have been labeled C2, P36, A1, A2, A11, N1, and SE5J, along with an explanatory cover letter;
- Documents of the now-defunct Special Task Force on Detainee Disposition (established by Executive Order 13,493) (the "Task Force"), which were archived with the Department of Justice's ("DOJ") National Security Division ("NSD"), and reviewed and processed by NSD, which have been numbered 1-18, along with an explanatory cover letter;
- Task Force documents that were referred by NSD to DoD, which have been Bates-numbered NSD ACLU Goodman 000001-64;

Hina Shamsi, Esq.
Nathan Wessler, Esq.
August 17, 2012
Page 2

- Task Force Documents that were referred by NSD to the Department of Homeland Security, which I have Bates-numbered NSD-DHS1-72;
- Task Force documents that were referred by NSD to DOJ's Office of Information Policy, which I have Bates-numbered NSD-OIP1-19, along with an explanatory cover letter;
- Task Force documents that were referred by NSD to DOJ's Office of Legal Counsel, which I have Bates-numbered NSD-OLC1-112, along with an explanatory cover letter;
- Task Force documents that were referred by NSD to DOJ's Office of the Solicitor General, which have been Bates-numbered ACLU Bagram 000001-15; and
- Task Force documents that were referred by NSD to State, which I have Bates-numbered NSD-State1, along with an explanatory cover letter.

Please note that some of the information on these documents has been redacted pursuant to various FOIA exemptions, as marked on the documents. With this production, each of the three defendant agencies (DoD, State, and DOJ) concludes its productions in satisfaction of the above-referenced stipulations.

Please contact me with any questions about these documents.

Very truly yours,

PREET BHARARA
United States Attorney
Southern District of New York

By:

JEAN-DAVID BARNEA
Assistant United States Attorney
Telephone: (212) 637-2679

Encls.