IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE CITY OF VIRGINIA BEACH

In re: A Court of Mist and Fury

Case No. CL22-1984

First Scheduling Order

COME NOW the following persons and entities, by counsel, and jointly move for the entry of this Order: Petitioner Thomas Altman, Bloomsbury Publishing, Inc., Sarah J. Mass, School Board of the City of Virginia Beach, Barnes & Noble Booksellers, Inc., and the booksellers/book-related trade associations and organizations amicus curiae/interested persons. Having considered the comments of counsel regarding the proper means of proceeding and the appropriate time required for orderly disposition of disputed issues, the Court sets the following schedule for further proceedings in this case.

1. The status conference scheduled for July 13, 2022, is hereby canceled and shall be removed from the docket.

2. An in-person hearing shall be conducted by the Court at the Circuit Court for the City of Virginia Beach, Virginia on August 30, 2022 (the “Dispositive Motion Hearing”) from 9:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.

a. Case No. CL22-1984 and Case No. CL 22-1985 (the “Cases”) have not been consolidated. However, as the motions in the Cases present overlapping issues of law, the Dispositive Motion Hearing shall address both Case No. CL22-1984 and Case No. CL 22-1985, respectively.

b. The Dispositive Motion Hearing shall be confined to the presentation of legal argument on dispositive motions which, if granted, would result in dismissal of this case or the resolution of other material preliminary questions of law.

c. The Dispositive Motion Hearing shall be conducted without the presentation of evidence.

3. Any person or entity that has filed, prior to July 13, 2022, a motion within the scope of Paragraph 1 above (the “Moving Parties”), shall file a brief in support of such motion that does not exceed 25 pages, double spaced. Such briefs must be served on or before 4:00 p.m. on July 26, 2022. Any person or entity that has filed motions in both this case and Case No. CL 22-1985 shall file a single brief that does not exceed 30 pages, double spaced, and shall submit the brief for filing in both this case and Case No. 22-1985.

4. Petitioner must serve his brief in opposition to the motions on or before 4:00 p.m. on August 9, 2022.

5. The Moving Parties may file a brief in reply to the Petitioner’s opposition and must serve the brief on or before 4:00 p.m. on August 16, 2022. Such briefs may not exceed 15 pages, double spaced.

6. Parties authorized by order of this Court to participate as amicus curiae shall submit their opening and reply briefs on the same schedule and with the same deadlines as those imposed on the Moving Parties by Paragraphs 2 and 4 above. Unless an amicus party has a particularized interest in this case or in Case No. CL22-1985, the Court wishes to minimize duplicative filings, and strongly encourages the submission of a single brief by each amicus party, to be filed in both this case and Case No. CL 22-1985. Opening amicus briefs shall not exceed 25 pages, double spaced, and amicus reply briefs, if any, shall not exceed 15 pages, double spaced.

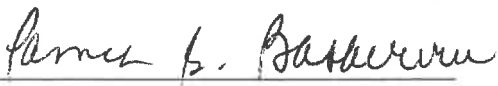

7. In addition to any other form of service, all briefs served pursuant to this Order shall be served on counsel by email by the deadlines set forth herein.

8. All briefs served pursuant to this Order shall be submitted, within one (1) business day of the date of service, for filing with the Clerk's Office by mail, overnight delivery or hand delivery.

The Clerk is requested to send certified copies of this Order to all counsel of record.

It is SO ORDERED.
