1 The Project on Government Oversight, the American Civil Liberties Union, the American
2 Civil Liberties Union Foundation, the Electronic Frontier Foundation And Jordan McCorkle
3 (“Applicants”) respectfully request the Court for leave to appear as prospective intervenors or, in the 4 alternative, amici curiae at the hearing in the matter scheduled for February 29, 2008.

5 Applicants will separately be filing a motion to intervene in this action, as well as a motion to 6 shorten time for the briefing and hearing on that motion, later today. The motion to intervene will 7 be made on the ground that the permanent injunction shutting down the “wikileaks.org” domain
8 name violates Applicants’ First Amendment rights to access information on the Wikileaks website
9 that is not related to the subject of this litigation and that Plaintiffs do not claim as their property.
10 The grounds for this motion will be more fully set forth in the Memorandum that Applicants will file 11 today in support of the motion.

12 Applicants’ motion to intervene will not have been adjudicated by February 29, when the 13 Court is scheduled to hold a hearing in this matter. Accordingly, Applicants respectfully request the 14 Court for leave to appear as prospective intervenors or, in the alternative, amici curiae at the 15 hearing, in order to argue that the continued imposition of the permanent injunction violates their 16 First Amendment rights to access the Wikileaks website.

17 Applicants’ counsel has given notice of this Application to counsel for Plaintiffs, who 18 declined to consent, and to counsel for Dynadot, who does not oppose it.
